

Private Lesson Scholarship Application

The Orange Wave Band is committed to assisting students with scholarship aid for half hour private lessons taught on campus. With most scholarship assistance in the form of half scholarships or the equivalent, the private lesson option has never been more affordable for Orange Wave Band members.

Qualifications: In order to qualify for scholarship assistance, students and parents must fill out an application form and submit it to Ms. Meadows. The form will then be reviewed by the directors. Factors that affect the decision-making process include financial need, musical achievement, and student attitude. Application Deadline: August 31st

Students accepted into the scholarship program further agree to the following:

- Parent(s) volunteer to help the Booster Organization during the school year.
- Student volunteers to help the directors at least once a month.
- Desire to improve on their instrument and work diligently to do so.
- Attend all rehearsals and sectionals.
- Prepare for and attend all private lessons.
- Participate in Solo/Ensemble Contest.
- Student must be passing all classes.
- Student must notify the instructor 24 hours in advance if they cannot attend a lesson.
- Student must provide books and/or materials required by the instructor.
- Student must be prompt in portion of payment to the instructor.
- Student displays enthusiasm and a positive attitude for the program at all times.
